

Southwest Regional Retreat

Discovering Reality with C.S. Lewis

If you're looking for an enriching and restful weekend in the good company of friends, old and new, who share an interest in the life and legacy of C.S. Lewis, this is the conference for you. In the intimate woodland setting of Camp Allen, explore Lewis' rich ideas on apologetics and spirituality.

Located in beautiful East Texas, this retreat will offer delightful and relaxed fellowship along with insightful speakers, meaningful worship, a dramatic one-man performance of The Great Divorce, liturgical dance, opportunity for solitude, woodland walks, shared readings, music making and fine dining. Canoeing, hiking, horse back riding and other outdoor activities will also be available. Y'all come!
