

Selected Reading List

We have compiled a list of recommended readings for the thoughtful general reader in order to provide a better orientation to various aspects of our theme – “The Self & the Search for Meaning” – as well as to the work of our plenary speakers. Please note that there is no mandated reading program. This list is provided by the Summer Institute Program Committee and faculty simply as suggested works to help guide our thinking and reflection. [Other works, to be discussed in individual seminars, are not included on this master list.] A supplemental list may be provided at a later date.
